Dear Organisation Manager

Notification of endorsement as a deductible gift recipient
For your information

Enclosed is your organisation's Notice of endorsement as a deductible gift recipient (DGR) for a fund, authority or institution that it operates.

Please note the following points.

- Your organisation's endorsement as a DGR, for a fund, authority or institution that it operates, together with the date or period of effect, is entered in the public register maintained by the Australian Business Registrar at www.abn.business.gov.au
- This endorsement will enable your organisation's fund, authority or institution to receive gifts which are tax deductible to donors.
- The endorsement applies only for the operation of the fund, authority or institution named in the notification. It does not apply to the whole of your activities. This means that income tax deductions are available only where gifts are made to the fund, authority or institution named and not for gifts made to your organisation as a whole (unless your organisation is separately endorsed).
- Your organisation's endorsement is based on the information it has supplied. Your organisation is required by law to notify the Tax Office in writing if it ceases to be entitled to endorsement as a DGR for the operation of this fund, authority or institution.

❗ As part of our risk management approach, each year we review the status of a number of organisations endorsed as a DGR for a fund, authority or institution that they operate. While the tax laws do not require any particular intervals between self-reviews, we recommend that your organisation conducts a yearly review. Your organisation should also carry out a review if there are major changes to its structure or operations.
